

Media Advisory
For Immediate Release
August 3, 2020

WHF 2020 Annual Symposium:
What you Need to Know in Compliance
Policy and Regulation Today

Washington, DC – On August 18, 2020, Women in Housing and Finance, Inc. (WHF) will host its 2020 Annual Symposium, “What You Need to Know in Compliance Policy and Regulation Today,” which will focus on key compliance policies and regulations affecting the financial services industry. Panelists will address topics including Congress’ role in regulatory affairs, how policy makers are addressing growing consumer debt, the ever-shifting landscape of privacy laws and regulation, and hot topics affecting independent mortgage bankers. In addition, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Director Kathy Kraninger will be the keynote speaker for the morning session. Precious Williams, CEO of Perfect Pitches by Precious and a world-class communicator who works with successful entrepreneurs and sales teams, will serve as the keynote speaker for the afternoon session.

Event: WHF 2020 Annual Symposium: What You Need to Know in Compliance Policy and Regulation Today

When: Tuesday, August 18, 2020 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM ET

Registration: Register Here

The Annual Symposium is WHF’s flagship event where financial services leaders and innovators convene to discuss key issues and trends in housing and finance. This year’s event will be in an all-virtual format, and there will be ample opportunity for virtual networking throughout the day.

###

About WHF: Established in 1979, Women in Housing & Finance, Inc. is an association of women and men active in the fields of financial services and housing. Our members include professionals and executives from the private and public sectors, including corporations, financial institutions, regulatory agencies, government sponsored enterprises, congressional staff, associations, law firms and non-profit organizations. WHF promotes its members through presentation of topical programs and opportunities in housing, financial services, professional enrichment, leadership enhancement and by creating opportunities to meet with government and private sector leaders.